Dear Mr Sandhu

On behalf of Ealing Foodbank Trustees, may I thank you for your generous donation of £5,000, cheque number 000117 which we received this week.

I have let our Chair of Trustees, the Rev'd Christopher Ramsay know your concerns about local charities and he would be delighted to have a conversation with you regarding your suggestion of further partnership with local charities which coincide with your own philanthropic priorities. He is involved in at least four within the borough and is happy to chat not only about Ealing Foodbank but more widely as well.

He would be happy to come to your offices but even better might be if you or Pardeep Sandhu had the time to come and see what we are doing at one of cafés where we distribute food. The Southall café is open on Thursdays 1-3pm. Christopher has suggested the 20th April or the 18th May as possible dates to meet there.

We have fed over 4,100 local people this financial year so far, and have calculated that to run our charity, it costs around £1.50 per meal given— we give enough food for 3 meals for 3 days to each person in the family. All the food, host premises and volunteer time is given free.

We have recently moved into rented premises in Hanwell where we receive the donations of food and run the office, and currently have 2 part-time paid workers.

I look forward to hearing from you with regard to arranging a meeting with Christopher via info@ealing.foodbank.org.uk , and if you would like any further information about the foodbank, please do get in touch.

Yours sincerely

Janet Fletcher

Ealing Foodbank Administrator
